BOY'S HEAD BROKEN BY HORSE'S KICK

James Darrah, of Buckingham, Had Skull Fractured—Steel Shoe Cork Penetrated Brain—Youth Taken to Hospital—Will Recover.

James Darrah, aged 17 years, son of Kirk Darrah, of Buckingham township, near Doylestown, was kicked by a horse, Monday night, and so seriously injured that he is in a critical condition in the Samaritan Hospital, Philadelphia.

The young man was working about the horse about 8 o'clock when it suddenly kicked, striking him with such force that one of the steel "corks" penetrated the skull in the forehead laying the brain open.

Dr. Joseph B. Swartzlander was summoned and as quickly as possible the victim was taken to Philadelphia in an automobile driven by John Wintyen. The trip to the hospital was made in just one hour.

During the trip Darrah was conscious all of the time and only had one bad spell. Trephining was resorted to in order to remove the pressure of the splintered bone on the brain and it is believed the young man has a good chance for recovery.

ABINGTON

POLICE NEWS.

The Abington police were notified over the phone about 12.30 on Thursday morning that a family jar was taking place at No. 4 Highland avenue, Willow Grove. Sergeant Lever and Officer Magee were soon on hand and arrested Harry McKee, who it was said had been drinking and after beating his wife and threatening to throw the children out of the window, was raising trouble with the neighbors. He was given a hearing before Justice Williams on Thursday night.

Ogontz and Ashbourne

HORSES TAKE LONG TRIP WITHOUT THEIR DRIVER.

Klosterman Brothers had a rather exciting time at an early hour on Thursday morning. George Fink had hitched up the double team with the idea of starting for a Philadelphia wharf for his usual load of produce. As he went back to close the doors of the barn the horses walked out of the lane. Frank Klosterman, who was in the store, heard the team go by, but thought nothing of the affair until Fink asked what had become of the team, and then a general search was made. As this was two a. m., no one could be found who saw the team and the Cheltenham police were notified as were the Philadelphia police. At six o'clock word was received from Philadelphia that a double team was found shortly after 3.30 on the Bristol pike near Tacony and that if Mr. Klosterman would come after the team, he could have the same. Now the mystery is how did the pair of horses go a distance of eight or ten miles, up and down hill, turn sharp corners, at full speed without turning over the wagon unless somebody was driving the horses. The only damage done was that both horses had lost a shoe and one horse was bleeding at the nostrils from his exertion.

Mrs. E. T. Gillespie left on Thursday for a stay at Atlantic City.

E. C. Hammond has purchased a handsome new Cadillac touring car.

Mrs. F. S. Katzenback, Jr., of Trenton, visited her mother, Mrs. A. H. McNeal, of Asbbourne road, this week.

The collection of garbage throughout the township will begin on June 1st. There will be three collections per week during the hot weather and two in winter time. All cans are to be water tight and provided with handles and are not to be further from the street than 250 feet and the collectors are to return the cans to the places from which they were taken.

Jesse Mack died on Wednesday night in St. Joseph's hospital, Philadelphia, where he was taken on Sunday, suffering with typhoid fever. Jesse was a young fellow, well liked in the community and made his home in Ashbourne. He was married only four months. The funeral will be held from his parents' residence in Philadelphia. The flag at the Old York Road Fire Company was at half mast, as he was a member of the active association.

RICHBORO

WILLOW GROVE NEWS.

OPENING OF PARK SEASON.

The music season at Willow Grove Park opens this Saturday afternoon with Ohlmeyer and his California band. Western musical critics praise highly this band, who are new comers in the East.

Ohlmeyer is the only director from the "Golden State" who has risen to the ranks of prominent band leaders in America. Western critics say that while young in years he has a rare knowledge of music. In nationality he is a combination of American, German and Spanish.

He has chosen his musicians from four of America's greatest symphony orchestras, so he says, and carries with him soloists of international reputation, headed by Herr Franz Helle, acknowledged to be the foremost fluegelhorn player in this country; one of the artists brought over from Vienna by the late Fritz Scheel some years ago. Otto Jacobs, the belgium euphonium soloist, is also with Ohlmeyer, together with John Hughes, one of the foremost cornetists in the land. James S. Seebold will be heard as piccolo soloist and Henry Mayer in solos on the xylophone.

Mr. Ohlmeyer also has with him Miss Blanche Lyons, the Boston soprano, who he promises will be heard at Willow Grove Park frequently in an extensive repertoire.

The program for Saturday afternoon, May 27 is as follows:

SON FINDS FATHER DEAD BY GAS

Jacob Soloner, Willow Grove Lunch Room Man, Committed Suicide—Placed Gas Stove Tube in Mouth and Lay Down to Die—Body Found in Morning.

Jacob Soloner, fifty-five years old, who was known to scores of patrons of Willow Grove Park, was asphyxiated last Monday night in a restaurant that he had conducted near the Welsh road entrance to the pleasure resort. According to the police of Abington township and Coroner King, of Norristown, Soloner committed suicide.

It is said that Soloner complained of severe pain in his head when he went to Willow Grove Monday. The police said that the excessive heat may have prompted him to end his life.

Soloner had the lunch room for several years and was widely known in the lower end of Bucks county. He went to Willow Grove Monday to get the restaurant in order for the opening of the park next Saturday. He told his relatives that he might sleep in the restaurant over night, and his absence from home did not alarm them.

Morris Soloner, eighteen years old, 311 N. Randolph street, Philadelphia, a son, went to the restaurant Tuesday morning to assist his father. The front door was closed and upon looking through a window, in the rear of the building, he saw his father lying on a cot. Thinking that something was wrong, the youth summoned assistance, and when the door was forced open Soloner was found dead.

According to the police, he had attached a tube to a small gas stove and placed the other end in his mouth.

At the annual meeting of Warrington Mutual Telephone Company at the home of H. E. MacNair officers were elected as follows: chairman, H. M. McKinstry; secretary, H. E. MacNair; treasurer, Edward Garges; superintendent of line, H. R. McKinstry.

BRUTAL HIGHWAYMEN SHOOT VICTIM

William H. Yerkes, of Norristown, Held Up, Robbed and Shot Three Times—Thugs Were Italians, who Escaped—Mr. Yerkes Carried Large Sum of Money to Pay His Men—Victim in Precarious Condition in Hospital—Mr. Yerkes Was a Former Resident of Hatboro.

William H. Yerkes, of Norristown, a member of the stone crushing firm of Lukens & Yerkes, was held up by two highwaymen, shot three times and robbed of about $180, last Monday, while on the way to one of the company's quarries near Swedeland. He was found in a semi-conscious condition on the ground near the quarry by several workmen and was hurried to the Norristown hospital in a critical condition with a bullet wounds in the back, arm and leg. Paralysis has followed the wound in the back. The highwaymen escaped.

Mr. Yerkes is a son of the late Harrison Yerkes, of Hatboro, and is a brother of George C. Yerkes and Mrs. Charles C. McNair, residents of this borough. He learned the printing business in the Spirit office and later went to Norristown, where he bought an interest in the Times. This he sold out later and went into the real estate and quarry business. He married Irene, a daughter of the late Benjamin Hughes, a wealthy resident of Bridgeport. Mr. and Mrs. Yerkes reside in a handsome house at Main and Stanbridge streets. They have a daughter, Mildred, who has been at a Bethlehem school. Mr. Yerkes is something over 50 years old.

The shooting of Mr. Yerkes, so close to the county seat, has caused great excitement in that section and many false reports have been sent out about the occurrence. The following is correct:

Mr. Yerkes on Monday morning drew $1356.78 from the People's National Bank to pay the quarry hands. The money was in small notes and coin. He divided it into packages and put them in different pockets. He boarded the 9.52 a. m. trolley car for Swedeland. He left the car at Swedeland and started to walk to one of the quarries about a mile away. In a lonely spot he was stopped by two Italians with revolvers, who demanded his money. What happened then is best told in the words of Mr. Yerkes, after he had recovered consciousness at the hospital. He said:

"When the men stepped out from a clump of trees and with leveled revolvers demanded that I give up the roll, I hesitated and refused to comply. Then one of them said, 'Tie him.' A few feet away I saw a quarry hole. It was filled with water probably 100 feet deep. I took a chance, tied into it as I passed. The first thought which came to me was 'They will tie and rob me and then throw me into the quarry hole and I will be drowned, for I will not have the use of my arms or legs.' Then I remembered that I did not have the money all in one pocket. In the left-hand pocket of my trousers I had the smaller roll. This I reached for and handed them, saying: 'Take that you scoundrels, would you murder me?' They took the money, but were not satisfied and knocked me down. They followed this act quickly by opening fire upon me. I don't know how many shots they fired at me, but I think it was five or six."

Mr. Yerkes gave the authorities the following descriptions of his assailants:

First man—21 years old, 5 feet 8 inches, Italian. Smooth face, 170 pounds. Wore soft brown hat, brown suit and brown working shirt. Tan button shoes, shabby attire.

Second man—5 feet 5 inches, 25 years old, smooth face, Italian. Weighed 140 pounds, wore light cap, brown clothes and brown working shirt. Both spoke broken English. Was sure that the men worked at Henderson's quarries during the past month.

The robbers are believed to have fled across the field in the direction of the Gulf Mills, through which the Trenton Cut-off branch of the Pennsylvania railroad passes.

Elmer E. Irving, supervisor of the Trenton Cut-off railroad, was engaged in inspecting a bridge. He was notified by quarrymen and hastened to Yerkes, and with a handkerchief bound up the wound on his arm, but did not attempt to dress the more serious injury to his back. Then a message was dispatched from Henderson station to Whitemarsh Junction and from there a telephone message was sent to Chief of Police Rodenbough, who, on receiving the information, sent an ambulance to the scene, and Mr. Yerkes was taken to the hospital. Doctors found his condition critical.

The police at once started a hunt for the robbers. The County Commissioners have offered a reward of $200.

Two Italian women residing at Swedeland told the police that they saw the two men who are believed to have done the shooting. They were dressed in brown suits. Both were about five feet four inches. One was stout and the other slim. The stout man wore a light slouch hat, while his companion had on a light cap. They had smooth faces and both were under thirty years old. The women said the men went up the road less than half an hour before the shooting. One of the women understood one of the men to ask if she had seen Mr. Yerkes. She said that one of the men was shooting a revolver into a pond of water.

When Joseph C. Lukens, Mr. Yerkes' partner, visited the hospital he discovered that there was still $1177.78 in Mr. Yerkes' clothing. As $1356.78 had been drawn out of the bank to pay off the hands, the robbers got the difference between that amount and what was found in his clothing after reaching the hospital—$179.03.

Several men were arrested but soon released.

Monday afternoon the doctors removed the bullet that had lodged in the elbow. The ball, which was a 32-calibre, had splintered the bone. It was found that the two bullets that had struck Mr. Yerkes in the back were about three inches apart.

Mrs. Yerkes was in Philadelphia Monday and did not know of the shooting until late in the afternoon.

The daughter was summoned home from school, arriving Monday night.

As we go to press, the condition of Mr. Yerkes is favorable to recovery, unless complications occur. No attempt will be made to remove the two bullets that lodged in Mr. Yerkes' back between the spine and the kidney.

The police have so far been unable to catch the guilty men.

Louis R. Benedict has bought the Bardo house on Walnut street near Fourth, Lansdale, for $3500.

A new roof is being placed on the Lansdale mushroom plant to cover the building erected fifteen years ago.

Sellersville is in need of 50 houses and at a meeting of the Board of Trade 20 were subscribed for, to be built.

Builders are estimating on plans for a two-story residence, 32 feet by 44 feet, in Oak Lane, for Charles Sanson.

Quakertown School Board has decided on a $15,000 bond issue to cover the cost of erecting a new school building.

Henry Specht, Willow Grove, is taking sub-bids on plans for a gardener's cottage at Oreland for Alfred C. Harrison.

John W. Emery is estimating on plans for a two-and-a-half-story residence, 33 feet by 40 feet, at Jenkintown, for Harry D. Stevens.

Bissell & Sinkler have invited estimates on plans for a two-story residence, 112 feet by 26 feet, with a wing, 29 feet by 28 feet, at Elkins Park for Wharton Sinkler.

Clyde S. Adams, architect, is taking revised bids for the erection of a two-story, 10-room stone residence for H. D. Stephens, at Jenkintown. The cost is to be within $12,000.

A tract of almost eight acres on Cottman street, 100 feet southeast of the Connecting Railway, in the Thirty-fifth Ward, has been sold by the Manor Real Estate and Trust Company to John Y. T. Adair for $3,536.50.

The residence and plot, 48 by 119 feet at the southwest corner of Sixty-fifth avenue and Thirteenth street, Oak Lane, has been conveyed by Lewis W. Colfelt to William Woldaver for a nominal consideration, subject to a $4000 mortgage.

Alfred E. Firman, of Churchville, has sold the Gearhart farm and saw mill property, containing 70 acres, located in the lower end of Northampton township, to C. W. Cornell, of Philadelphia, who will make needed repairs to the buildings.

A. G. Priestman, broker, has sold 546 East Washington lane, Germantown, for Seward L. Bowser to Owen F. Lyons. The house is a three-story Colonial dwelling containing 10 rooms. It is one of an operation of houses built by Mr. Bowser.

John W. Emery has the contract for the erection of the Logan Station of the Philadelphia and Reading to cost $65,000. The building will be on the west side of Broad street and will be a two-story brick structure with stone trimmings and concrete base, cement platforms and stairways and will resemble the station at Tioga.

Sales made by Charles F. Beaumont, Doylestown, real estate agent: B. Frank Bodine, 50 acres, to Alfred D. Gearhart, Pittsburg. P. W. Buckman, 60 acres, to Audtin Clark, Dubboise. Morritt R. Williams, Doylestown, to A. P. Walker, West Mahanoy. Sirus Walters, 59 acres, to Edward E. and George H. Howes, of Philadelphia, Pa. Mrs. Carney, Danboro, 7 acre lot to George Kumpf, Philadelphia. For Horace L. Myers, of Buckingham, 68 acres to C. H. Stall, of Altoona.

An unusual amount of building is going on in Lansdale this season, and the outlook for a continuance of activity in that line is still promising. Many fine new dwelling houses on both sides of the railroad are in progress, and it is likely that upwards of fifty will have been completed by the time the building season closes. The latest one to start is that of Hiram C. Brunner, on the lot on East Third street, near Third, ground for which was broken on Tuesday. Mr. Brunner, who has been living at Chalfont, will occupy the house after its completion. S. R. Cressman, of Hatfield, has the contract.

Every boy's hand is against a snake, a spider, a rat and a crow.

Men don't care much about society, but when a woman isn't invited, she squirms.

The method employed by some girls in getting wedding presents is little less than highway robbery.

When two men fight to a finish, and both are badly punished, that quarrel has usually been settled for good.

WILL REPAIR HANCOCK TOMB

Norristown Refuses, but Historical Society Takes Up Work.

The Town Council of the borough of Norristown, through its Law Committee, has decided not to obligate itself to keep the tomb of General Winfield Scott Hancock in repair, inasmuch as the tomb is not located in the borough.

As a result of this decision, the Montgomery County Historical Society which referred the subject to Town Council, will repair the tomb by popular subscription. Each member of the society will be asked to give $1. The Hancock Fire Company, of Norristown, have volunteered to do as much, which gives the assurance that the tomb will soon be cared for, and a neglected resting place will no longer be a reason why, periodically, it should be agitated that this body be removed to the National Cemetery at Arlington.

NEW ELEVATED OPEN JUNE 4.

The new four-track elevated system of the Reading Railway to Wayne Junction will be completed and ready for service by June 4, according to present expectations of officials of the company. It is also expected to have the summer train schedule arranged and ready to put into effect at the same time.

The opening of the elevated will abolish all grade crossings through that section. The two inner tracks will be used for through express trains and the two outer tracks for local service.

TROLLEY CREW BLAMELESS.

The Philadelphia Coroner's jury decided on Saturday that Anson L. Worthington, of Doylestown, and George Cope, of Jenkintown, the crew of the Willow Grove trolley car, were blameless for the death of Charles A. Spiegel, a banker, 246 Harvey street, Germantown, as the result of a collision between his carriage and a Willow Grove car which was operated by the defendants. The accident happened at York and Tabor roads.

It was shown that Spiegel attempted to turn from York road into Tabor road ahead of the car, and that he was dragged from the carriage by the reins.

Dropsy—
Given up by Doctor
"I had dropsy, and was told by my family physician that there was no chance for me. My family also gave me up. My limbs and body were swollen one-third larger than natural, water collected around my heart and I had to be propped up in bed to keep from smothering. I took Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy until I was entirely cured. This was in 1902, and I am now able to do any kind of work on my farm. My cure was certainly marvelous."
L. TURLEY CURD, Wilmore, Ky.
Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy has been wonderfully successful in relieving heart trouble. Its tonic effect upon the heart nerves and muscles is a great factor in assisting nature to overcome heart weakness.

KURIOS FROM KORRESPONDENTS

Q. Please explain to me why my 300 egg incubator hatches so uneven. By testing I find the heat uniform in the egg chamber and yet some eggs hatch along to the twenty-second day. A. Your machine is so large that part of the eggs are old before you have enough to set. The old eggs hatch late, but often not at all.

Q. What is meant by the "loss off" system of selling eggs? A. This is a method now in vogue in certain western states by which all bad eggs in a shipment are candled out by the buyer and not paid for.

Q. How much floor space do I need per duck in winter? How many ducks should be kept in a flock in winter? Should ducks and drakes be same age? A. Five feet square. Twenty-five. Drake should be at least two to three months older than ducks.

Q. I have been losing many of my chicks in the first ten days and cannot find the cause. I feed a prepared chick feed and give them boiled potatoes sprinkled with bran once a day. Their crops sour and they have bowel trouble. Is it the ration or what? A. Boiled potatoes sour quickly and are very indigestible for young chicks. There's the trouble.

Q. I read your article recently on Rhode Island Reds and wish to ask if they are hard to breed. A. If you breed Reds for show points you will find them rather difficult to breed to standard requirements, but if you are after lots of nice brown eggs and pounds of sweet juicy meat you'll not find Reds harder than others.

Q. Why do you suppose my Leghorn roosters' combs turn over? A. There are various reasons why their headgear goes crooked. The comb may be top heavy or ill shaped. The base may be too thin or loose on account of roup. The bird may lack vigor or be lousy.

FEATHERS AND EGGSHELLS.

The United States district attorney at Chicago told a jury there were 34,000,000 germs in a teaspoonful of eggs sold by the defendant and if they didn't believe him they should just come and count them.

The newspaper is one of God's agencies to hasten the millennium and is a protector of the home. It teaches true living, promotes public education, brands criminals, prevents many a crime, fights for the flag, wars against disease and just now is in a great battle against tuberculosis and the adulterators of food. To stand by the editor is therefore not only right and brotherly, but promotes your own welfare and the common good.

A Willow (Pa.) turkey raiser made it so hot for a bunch of turkey thieves that they deserted their team and took to the woods. The farmer still has the team. The horse is a fine nightmare.

When a man was hemmed in by flames at Coatesville, Pa., the neighbors placed two goose feather beds beneath him, and he jumped on them from a third story window and was saved. But this is not exceptional. "The cackling of geese saved Rome."

Better stir up the pigeon nests occasionally, for mice are often hatched under homers as well as squabs. When pigeons are allowed to nest on the floor, rats may take them and come back for more.

The best eggs for hatching are laid by hens that haven't been rushed for eggs all winter. The most fertile turkey eggs come from stock that has been fed a normal ration—that is, a la nature.

There are very few people who will not stop to admire a pretty rooster, and every spring the hen fever catches most of us. Of course you'll set a hen, and the care of her and those chicks will not only mean nice fries, but you'll have fewer wrinkles and be healthier for it.

Go to the ant, thou sluggard; go to the hen, you professional men!

The heater on an incubator should not only be neat, but should be so lapped, seamed, riveted and soldered as to be gas tight. It should have an asbestos jacket to render it fireproof and should be detachable so that it may be removed to clean with ease.

Folks may laugh at original contrivances for scaring off crows and other varmints and homemade alarms to catch burglars, but Marietta (Pa.) police had to sit up and take notice when two boys made a cow bell burglar alarm and caught a chicken thief that had been skinning coops for over a year.

Brooders will sometimes smoke until all the heating parts are warmed up. They should be leveled up so that water vessels and lamps are on the square.

When you are offered 75 cents per barrel for good hen manure it will pay you better to spread it on the garden or field. There is nothing better for strawberries than hen manure, and pigeon droppings are finest for flowers.

C. M. Barnitz.

Passports In Russia.

Every person arriving in Russia is required to surrender his passport to the owner or manager of the hotel or house he stops at and if married give all information as to the name and ages of his wife and children, so as to enable the house owner or hotel proprietor to complete the blank prescribed by law for submittance with the passport to the respective police district station for registration. The blanks are made out in duplicate, one copy being filled out at the police station and the other forwarded to the address bureau, at which place it is possible to learn the address of any one residing, temporarily or otherwise, in the city. A similar blank is filled out when the party moves into another house or leaves the city, notation being made as to the destination. The traveler in leaving need only inform the hotel management or house owner, provided he is living in private apartments, of his departure and give the name of the city or country he is bound for.

The Retort Legal.

"Sometimes the law seems unjust for the reason that it isn't comprehended," said a judge. "Take the case of the woman prisoner before Sir Edward Coke. This woman appeared in court with her hat on. The judge said sternly:

"'A woman may be covered in church, but not when arraigned in a court of justice.'

"To this the woman replied:

"'It seems singular that I may wear my hat in the presence of God, but not in the presence of man.'

"And she would appear, in her legal ignorance, to have got the better of the argument until Sir Edward Coke retorted:

"'It isn't singular at all. Man, with his weak intellect, cannot discover secrets known to God, and therefore in investigating truth the court must see all obstacles put aside. Accordingly it is fitting that the prisoner's hat be removed and with it the shadow that it casts on her face.'"

MAGAZINES.

A WONDER BUNGALOW.

A triumph of architecture in point of maximum convenience with minimum expenditure of both money in building and energy in "keeping house" is described by Frank Maynard in the June number of Popular Mechanics Magazine. He appropriately calls it a "Wonder Bungalow." Some of the features of this dwelling are as follows:

"From the entrance porch, one step into a beam-ceiled living room, 25 feet long by 12 feet wide, extending unbroken clear across the front, with casement windows on all three sides. Directly to the right is the staircase, the balustrade side of which is a bookcase. In the center of the front wall are French windows leading to the living porch. Next to the staircase is a little closet for outdoor wraps. In the back wall of the living room is the opening of a small hall leading to the ground-floor bedroom, the bathroom, and the stove space. Next is the grill which hides the stove, and beyond this, the revolving wall and swinging door which close off the kitchen.

"When not in use, the dining-room table is placed in a corner of the kitchen. It is set for breakfast, lunch, or dinner, as the case may be, in the kitchen, then the meal is placed upon it the swinging door is hooked back, the revolving wall swung around the table being pushed along at the same time, and in a moment one end of the living room has assumed the characteristics of a dining room. On one side of the revolving wall is a china cabinet, which is in the living room when the latter is converted into a dining room, and in the kitchen when the living room again assumes its natural role."

THE JUNE CENTURY.

The June "Century" is an Anglo-American number, having four pages in color, and with several articles of most timely interest on both sides the Atlantic by prominent English and American writers.

James Davenport Whelpley, the authority who has written several "Trade of the World" papers for "The Century," presents vital facts and figures regarding "The Commercial Strength of Great Britain;" and Rear-Admiral A. T. Mahan, author of "The Influence of Sea Power Upon History," discusses important phases of "The Panama Canal and Sea Power in the Pacific." James Cardinal Gibbons's "An Anglo-American Pact of Peace" is a wise and kindly message of good will to the English people.

Special mention should be made of the second installment of Prof. Guglielmo Ferrero's notable and unique series of papers on "The Women of the Caesars."

JUNE AMERICAN MAGAZINE.

The American Magazine for June contains five great articles of national importance. "The Conflict Between Religion and the Church," by Bishop Williams of Michigan, is perhaps the most notable article in the number.

Another extraordinary contribution is a baseball article by Hugh Fullerton. It is a description of the experiences and duties of an umpire.

In the same number Walter Prichard Eaton writes a remarkably interesting theatrical article on "The One-Night Stand." TerrEugene Wood contributes almost a masterpiece of observation and humor on "Hunting a Job in the Wicked City." Notable fiction is contributed by Susan Glaspell, Dion Calthorp, William Allen Johnston, Kay Cammack, Frances Hodgson Burnett and Maurice Brown Kirby. Other contributors are Ida M. Tarbell, Albert Jay Nock and F. W. Taylor, each of whom writes an important article. The three great departments which especially characterize The American Magazine—"The Interpreter's House," "Interesting People" and "The Pilgrim's Scrip"—are filled with good reading.

The Economy of Telephone Selling

A proved economy. Many business people have already used this method with great success. Why not apply it in your business? One of your salesmen traveling the broad, far reaching highway of the Bell System can reach a far greater number of customers than can be reached by three salesmen going by rail from town to town, and the traveling and other expenses will show a material reduction.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Women in Local News.

MRS. DRAYTON DIVORCED.

Mrs. Phoebe Drayton, daughter of Theodore Voorhees, vice president of the Reading Railway, obtained a divorce from her husband, W. Heyward Drayton, 3d, in Common Pleas Court No. 5, in Philadelphia on Monday. The granting of the final decree follows a separaion for more than two years, the grounds of the divorce being desertion. Both parties are free to marry again.

Mr. Drayton is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Drayton, of Penllyn. He and Miss Voorhees were married about eleven years ago, the event attracting much attention in the social world. They lived at Penllyn until the separation took place, when Mr. Drayton, who up to that time had been a partner in the brokerage business with William Elkins, went to New York as the representative of the firm of Pennington, Colket & Co.

Mrs. Drayton has since lived in a house at Elkins Park, adjoining the home of her father. The couple have three children, Henry, aged 9 years; Nancy, aged 5 years, and Phoebe, aged 3 years. They are with their mother.

One of Doylestown's teachers, Miss Mary B. Atkinson, has resigned. She will teach next term in the Cathedral school, at Orlando, Florida.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth McVan, late of North Wales, was held on Monday morning at the Church of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, Doylestown.

Because she found a necklace lost in the shoe store in which she is employed, Miss Grace Reed, of Bristol, received a $2.50 gold piece from the owner.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Norristown's First Presbyterian church, by a penny-a-day system, collected $1465 the past year. The wife of Judge William F. Solly is president of the society.

The bakery held Saturday afternoon by Miss Ethel Ott, of Doylestown, for the benefit of St. George's Kintergarten of Philadelphia, in which Miss Ott is deeply interested, netted $40.

Constable Robert Porter found three children, the eldest 7 years old, in the attic of a residence in Norristown. Their mother was at work and the eldest child was acting as mother for the others of from 1 to 5 years.

Mrs. Rosalie Hoffman, of near Doylestown, is recovering from the effects of a fall she suffered a few days ago in which she had the lobe of one ear nearly severed and was painfully bruised. Although 95 years of age, Mrs. Hoffman still enjoys good health and bravely stood the placing of five stitches in the wound.

GIRLS IN GYMNASTICS

Delightful Entertainment Given by Miss Marshall's Scholars.

The pupils of Miss Marshall's School, at Oak Lane, gave delightful gymnastic entertainment on the campus on Thursday afternoon in the presence of a large assemblage of parents and friends. A march and wand drill was participated in by all the pupils gaied in the regulation gymnastic costume. Miss Cordelia Stewart gave a pretty Swedish dance, while in the Egyptian dance the performers were: Miss Katharine Smith, Catharine Pfeil, Marjorie Fleming, Eleanor Sitt, Elizabeth Osborne, Katharine Ja[mes], Cordelia Stewart, Margaret [illegible]ee, Dorothy Megargee, Dorothy [illegible]tle, Mary Stewart, Jane Dee[n].

A closely contested basket[ball] game between the Green and Gold resulted in a victory for the Golds. At the close of the exercises Miss Dorothy Bech and Ruth [illegible]ne received silver medals for [illegible]work in gymnastics, while others received ribbons. The judges were Mrs. Frederick Doolittle, Miss Mary V. Weir, Mrs. H. E. Asbury, Miss [illegible]A. Holst and Miss Clara A. Harmer.

[illegible]er, Daniel Gannon, of East [illegible] street, was thrown to the ground, receiving painful injuries. He was carried to the Germantown [illegible], where the doctors found [illegible] fractured and deep lacerations [illegible]e head. The wagon was damaged [illegible] the horses were caught after [illegible] several blocks.

CHESTNUT HILL PARK

White City, Chestnut Hill, opened its season last Saturday with a number of new amusements installed, and the buildings have all been renovated and painted. Several hundred persons were present.

The park is under the management of Henry B. Auchy, who had charge last season. Mr. Auchy says the year was a banner year, and he expects to make this season even more successful.

During the season all holidays will be celebrated in an appropriate manner and many special events are scheduled to take place. On May 30, (Memorial Day), there will be served in a gala manner dinner, with a special programme, and with magnificent display of fireworks in the evening. The first special event of the season will be Saturday, June 3, when the Chelten Kennel Club will hold its annual dog show.

TIMELY RECIPES

CREAM OF ASPARAGUS.

Cream of asparagus is much sought after; prepare it by cutting a large bunch of asparagus into small pieces, reserving the tips; cover with four pints of boiling water, add a shallot, few stalks of celery and sprigs of parsley, and a teaspoonful of salt. Cook about twenty minutes, then press through a sieve; place over the fire and bring to a boil; beat the yolks of three eggs till light, and to these add a cupful of rich cream and stir into a hot soup. The tips must be reserved for the custard, and when done must be cut into dice, placed in the tureen and the cream of asparagus poured over it. Cook these tips separately in very little water, and when tender press through a sieve, add a couple tablespoonfuls of cream, a little salt and the well-beaten whites of two eggs. Pour into thick cups, place in a pan of hot water and poach the custard until firm in the oven.

ASPARAGUS SAUCE.

Asparagus sauce is most appetizing served with chops. Stew about a pound of tender heads in just sufficient water to cover them; when done drain off the water, cover with thick sweet cream and mash until smooth; add three teaspoonfuls of butter, salt and pepper to suit the taste. Simmer gently for a few minutes and serve hot.

DELICIOUS RHUBARB RECIPES.

Rhubarb is plentiful now and may be used as the foundation for many delicious desserts. Here are some recipes that may suggest some changes in the home menu:

Rhubarb Cream

Trim and cut into small pieces some fresh, forced rhubarb. Put them in a clean saucepan with a little water, castor sugar, lemon rind, and cook till tender.

Remove the strips of lemon rind and set the fruit aside till cool. Then beat well with a fork, stirring in a little good cream.

Serve in cups of green pottery or in jelly glasses, placing a little mound of whipped cream on the fruit. Water biscuits or gaufrettes are a suitable addition.

Rhubarb Pyramids.

Prepare and cook some rhubarb as for rhubarb cream. Stir in sufficient softened gelatine to stiffen the whole, and heat thoroughly.

Turn into small, wetted cups or molds and set aside to get cold. Turn into a deep fancy dish when required for table, decorate with glace cherries and angelica and pour cream or custard round the base of the pyramids to cover the bottom of the dish.

Rhubarb Tartlets.

Make some good short pastry and line some patty pans with it, choosing those of deep shape. Prick over the bottom of the pastry lining with a fork, and bake the pastry cases till they are cooked through.

Serve them hot or cold, filled with a stiff compote of cooked rhubarb and arranged on a lace paper doiley on a dish. Decorate the tartlets with little leaves and devices of cooking pastry.

Hearts, diamonds, clubs and spades are suitable shapes when the tartlets are for use as card party refreshments.

VALLEY FORGE MEMORIAL ARCH

Washington's Camp to be Marked by Imposing Work.

The terrible sufferings of the Continental army during the winter of 1777 and 1778 will be fittingly commemorated shortly when the handsome memorial arch, provided by act of Congress last June, will be erected upon the site of Washington's encampment at Valley Forge, in honor of the Father of the Country and General Von Steuben. The Valley Forge Park Commission, to whose membership was intrusted the design and location of the arch, has completed plans which have met with approval of the War Department, and the construction of the memorial is to be superintended by Major Herbert Deakyne, of the Army Engineer Corps, who is now in charge of harbor improvements in the Philadelphia district.

Memorial day of next year has been set aside for the dedication of the arch, which was designed by Paul P. Cret, of the University of Pennsylvania School of Architecture. The plan of the Arch of Titus in Rome was generally adhered to throughout, and the memorial will therefore be of Roman classic design with Doric columns. It is to be constructed of granite, 50 feet in height, 40 feet in width and 20 feet in depth. The span will approximately measure 20 feet in width by 35 feet in height. Symbolic figures, representing "Victory," "Peace," "Glory" and "Honor," will form the decorations of the spandrel, and the attic will be suitably inscribed with letters of bronze.

JAIL TO HEAT COURT HOUSE.

The Montgomery County Commissioners and Controller are planning placing a boiler in the jail to be used for heating both the jail and the court house at Norristown, by running pipes across Airy street to the court house. They figure that it will be very much more economical than paying for heat from the Norristown Heat Company. They figure that they will save on labor, at least, for the prisoners will do it.

Indigestion and Stomach Troubles

are common ailments in most families. In fact, they often prove to be serious ailments. There is no occasion for either one of these ailments if you have Dill's pills handy.

Thousands of people are being constantly cured of the two above mentioned maladies by using Dill's Pills regularly. Don't delay, start to use them at once, and you will soon learn of their wonderful effectiveness. At all dealers 25c. 1966-tf

NEW RECTOR AT BRANCHTOWN

The Rev. Harry Vincent Will Accept Call to Episcopal Church, It is Said.

The Rev. Harry Grattan Guinness Vincent has been called to the rectorship of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the House of Prayer, Branchtown, to succeed the Rev. Azael Coates, who resigned to go to Virginia. It is understood that he will accept.

Mr. Vincent was born in New York, but has lived in Philadelphia since boyhood. He was educated at Brown University and Union Theological Seminary. After his ordination he spent three years in missionary work in Kansas. Before coming into the Diocese of Pennsylvania he was rector of Trinity Church, Athens, Bradford county, Pa., and also of the Prince of Peace Church-on-the-Battlefield, Gettysburg, Pa. In this last parish he met many men and women of national and international fame who were worshippers in this beautiful memorial church, which was consecrated while he was minister there. William Jennings Bryan, who was among these, afterwards spoke in high praise of his preaching.

Mr. Vincent has been a Presbyter of the Diocese of Pennsylvania since 1905. For nearly three years he served as assistant minister in the historic parish of Trinity (Oxford), Philadelphia, of which the Rev. Horace P. Fuller is rector. From 1908 until now he has been minister-in-charge of the Elmwood Mission, in the convocation of West Philadelphia, of which the Rev. S. Lord Gilberson is Dean. Mr. Vincent has also done other important work in the several convocations.

WORSHIP IN OLD CHURCH.

Among notable church events Sunday was the observance of the 77th anniversary of the founding of famous Old Mount Pleasant Baptist church, at Ambler. Away back in 1832 the first Baptist service in what is now known as Ambler, was conducted, and in 1834 the church on Mount Pleasant, near where the borough is now located, was opened for service. Now the congregation numbers hundreds, and has a splendid place of worship.

WHAT I WENT THROUGH

Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Natick, Mass. — "I cannot express what I went through during the change of life before I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in such a nervous condition I could not keep still. My limbs were cold, I had creepy sensations, and I could not sleep nights. I was finally told by two physicians that I also had a tumor. I read one day of the wonderful cures made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it, and it has made me a well woman. My neighbors and friends declare it had worked a miracle for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth its weight in gold for women during this period of life. If it will help others you may publish my letter."—Mrs. NATHAN B. GREATORX, 51 N. Main Street, Natick, Mass.

The Change of Life is the most critical period of a woman's existence. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS

Under a ruling of the Post Office Department, at Washington, which went into effect on January 1st., 1908, publishers of weekly newspapers are not permitted to extend credit to a subscriber for a longer period than one year. Names of subscribers who have not paid their subscription for a period of one year or more must be taken off the list or the publisher is liable to a penalty.

We are therefore sending out bills to all subscribers who owe a year or more, and have instructed our collector, Edwin Kirk, to call this ruling to the attention of those from whom he collects.

Prompt settlement is urged, or accounts must be placed in the hands of attorneys.

We have no choice in this matter as much as we would be willing to favor certain cases.

The Spirit must comply with this ruling of the United States Government.

GREAT UNCERTAINTY PREVAILS among country school boards as to their standing and duties under the new school code.

Under the former law the boards reorganized early in June. Now most of them are in a quandary what to do.

The State school department should send out instructions.

THE LEGISLATURE ADJOURNED on Friday. Now if Congress will do likewise and we shall have a nice rain, the country will have a chance to take the prosperity road once more.

Where is North Glenside and who lives there, is the question that seems to agitate some of our people. What was formerly called North Glenside seems now to have the name of North Glenside and consequently some of the people in that section do not know where they live or for a certainty that they live in North Glenside. The station is still called Edge Hill. There are three names now applying to that section, Edge Hill, Remu and North Glenside, and to a stranger might be confusing and misleading.

The military company of Carmel church together with two companies from Philadelphia paraded last Saturday afternoon and made quite a bit with the townspeople. Over one hundred boys in uniform were in line and presented a fine appearance and showed careful training. They had a military drill near Ardsley and other exercises and we are glad to say that our local company were superior to the other companies in their work. Captain Hinkle has the boys in fine shape and there is quite a demand for their services for Memorial day and the Fourth of July exercises in the different towns on those days.

Those who were unable to attend the ball game at Doylestown on Saturday between Glenside and Doylestown, awaited the returns on that afternoon in suspense, as they were uncertain as to the calibre of their representatives in the Northern Penn League. Although we lost, people were very much gratified with the score of 7 to 5, and are now enthusiastic over the team's showing. Hallman pitched a good game and our local players played a capable game. A big attendance is expected at the Glenside park this Saturday when Perkasie comes down, as there will be something doing at that time. Come out and bring your friends with you.

A circular letter was sent out this week by the brotherhoods of the different churches of this community and signed by representative citizens calling on the different business men to close their business places on the Sabbath day and to observe the day as it should be observed, and to lend their help in having the day observed in the proper manner. This is a good move in more ways than one, as we are sure that it will benefit the tradesmen in bettering their business, give them Sunday rest and get them the esteem of every one in general. Since the letter has been sent out we hear comments favorable and unfavorable but the unfavorable ones have been pretty weak and the movement seems to have the support of the better class in general, and several have stated that they are willing to observe the day by closing their business places. This will be fair for all, as what you cannot sell or do on Sunday will have to be done on Saturday or Monday, so in the end nothing will be lost by popular change. If you are living in this section make this a model section and others will follow. Don't let any other town or section show us the way.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY, PA.

Sur Petition to satisfy four Mortgages on Land in Horsham Township, in Mortgage Books Nos. 9 page 455; 12 page 29; 18 page 237; and 18 page 239.

All parties in interest are hereby notified that J. Wilbur Stokes and Andrew Hoyer filed their petition in said court on the 12th day of May, 1911, setting forth that they are the owners of a farm of 123 acres and 57 perches of land in Horsham Township in said petition described and that said farm is composed of different tracts and some of them are subject to the four following mortgages (1) Samuel DeHaven to Cadwalader Evans and Robert J. Evans, executors of John Evans, dated January 25, 1809 and recorded in Mortgage Book No. 9, page 455, to secure the payment of the sum of one hundred pounds, and that said mortgage had been defectively satisfied; (2) Stephen Love to John Barclay, dated April 1, 1815 and recorded in Mortgage Book 12, page 28, to secure the payment of eleven hundred dollars, which mortgage remains unsatisfied of record; (3) John Fry to John E. Kenderdine, dated April 1, 1830 and recorded in Mortgage Book No. 18, page 237, to secure the payment of three hundred and forty dollars; and setting forth that this mortgage had been satisfied April 1, 1849, by Harriet Shay, assignee of Isaac Mann, guardian, who was assignee of Jesse Shay who was the assignee of John E. Kenderdine, the mortgagee, but that none of the assignments of record identifies the mortgage assigned as being the mortgage above recited; (4) Lukens Lott to George Child or Childs, dated May 1, 1830, in Mortgage Book 18, page 239, to secure the payment of two hundred and forty dollars; and that this mortgage had been satisfied by Chalkley Kenderdine, one of the administrators of Issachar Kenderdine, assignee of Paul Dowlin, who was assignee of George Childs, the mortgagee, but that none of the assignments of mortgage sufficiently identify the mortgage assigned.

That subsequent to the time of the attempted satisfactions of the above recited four mortgages, the original mortgages were lost or destroyed; that no payment of principal or interest has been made within the period of twenty-one years on account of said encumbrances or either of them and that the presumption of payment has long since arisen, and praying the court to direct the satisfaction of record as provided by law.

Whereupon the Court directed the Sheriff of the County of Montgomery to give notice to all parties in interest personally, if found, and to all parties out of the county and to all unknown parties by public notice once a week for four successive weeks in the Montgomery County Law Reporter and in the Hatboro Public Spirit, requiring the parties to appear in Court on Monday the 19th day of June, 1911, at ten o'clock a. m., to answer the prayer of the petitioners and to show cause, if any they have, why the land described in the petition should not be released and discharged from the lien and operation of the said four mortgages.

Notice of the above petition and rule is therefore hereby given to (1) Cadwalader Evans and Robert J. Evans, executors of John Evans, deceased; (2) John Barclay; (3) to John E. Kenderdine, Jesse Shay, Isaac Mann, guardian of Harriet Shay and Mary Ann Shay; (4) to George Childs or Child, John E. Kenderdine, executor of George Child or Childs, to Paul Dowlin, Guardian of Clayton and George Child or Childs, to Issachar Kenderdine and to Chalkley Kenderdine, admr. of Issachar Kenderdine; and to all other persons in interest.

IN THE ORPHAN'S COURT OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY.

to Satisfy Legacies under of Stephen Love, Sarah and Paul Dowlin, Sr., on land Horsham Township.

ties in interest are hereby not- J. Wilbur Stokes and Andrew ed that they did, on the court 6th day of May, 1911, setting ir petition the owners of a fa 123 acres and 57 perches of land Horsham Township in said petition described, and that said land is subject to legacies contained in the will of Stephen Love recorded in the Register of Wills of Montgomery County, July 26, 1822, and registered in Will Book No. 2, page 173, and to legacies contained in the will of Sarah Love admitted to probate March 12, 1828 and registered in Will Book No. 2, page 173, and praying the court to direct the satisfaction of all of said legacies and charges.

The legacies in the will of Stephen Love were as follows: to—Gorman, son of Thomas Gorman, one thousand dollars; Stephen Love, son of his brother, William Love or to the lawful representatives, five hundred dollars; to the children of Frances Bunn, late of Bucks County to be equally divided among them, their legacies and interest respectively five hundred dollars; to William Lows, James Lows, John Lowns and Sister, Katharine Lows in equal parts or to their legal representatives respectively five hundred dollars; to nephew, Andrew Love or to his representatives five hundred dollars; to James Love, daughter of Stephen, three hundred dollars, should she have married and without issue the said five hundred dollars to her mother Love, wife of James Williamson or to her children in equal shares; to Sarah Allen or her legal representatives three hundred dollars.

The legacies charged in the will of Sarah Love were as follows, viz: and devisen in the will of the said Stephen Love together with his legal debts and sets of administration, charges in addition thereto she charged the following legacies thereon—to David Rohb or his legal representatives five hundred dollars to Ellen Gorman or her legal representatives one hundred dollars; to wife of James McGhee or her representatives five hundred dollars and residue of her estate to David or to his legal representatives.

And the Court thereupon directed the Sheriff of the County of Montgomery to give notice to all known parties in interest according to law and to all parties of the county, if any, and to all unknown parties, if any, by public notice published once a week for four successive weeks in the Montgomery County Reporter and in the Hatboro Public Spirit, requiring the parties to appear in Court on Wednesday the fifth day of July, 1911 at ten o'clock a. m. to answer, if any they have, why the land of the petitioner should not be released and the lien described in the petition be decreed to be released and discharged from the lien and operation of the legacies charged in the wills of said Stephen Love and Sarah Love and Paul Dowlin, Sr.

Notice of the above petition and rule is therefore hereby given to all of the parties under each of the above wills and their legal representatives and all other persons in interest.

the attention of the greatest number of people to your property for sale or rent or for sale, a position wanted, or anything in one-half inch column? It brings quick results.

PUBLIC SPIRIT,
Printing Hatboro Pa.

"ADVERTISING IN THE SPIRIT PAYS"

The PUBLIC SPIRIT of Hatboro, Pa., is the best paper in which to advertise a public sale of personal property. Why the SPIRIT? Because of its advantageous location and widespread circulation among the well-to-do class who have money with which to buy. It is not only read by all the people in a wide scope of country with Hatboro as a centre, but it goes to dealers in Philadelphia, Germantown and else where. If you want to reach people who attend sales, advertise in the SPIRIT.

The SPIRIT job department turns out attractive posters, on good paper with catchy display and cuts, at moderate prices, for prompt work.

We will make an advance announcement of the date, place and character of coming sales under this head free. If we are going to have the poster printing and the sale is advertised in our paper. In all other cases the charges for advance announcements will be 50 cents. Secure your date early so as not to conflict with other sales in the same locality.

There is to be a train leaving the Terminal at 6.13 in the evening, which will greatly please those who cannot now make the 5.07 and have to wait until the 6.40. There is also to be a train leaving the Terminal at 1.12 on Saturday afternoons only, which comes out ahead of the present milk train. The new train will come out in about 50 minutes. There will also be a new train leaving Hatboro in the evening at about eight o'clock, and it is also expected that the Sunday service will be better. These reported improvements in time are due to the energetic work of the Business Men's Association along the line from Roslyn to Ivyland, Hatboro's Association playing a most important part.

WIFE'S BATTLE FOR DIVORCE.

Issue Hinges on What Legally Constitutes Desertion.

After being married for over 20 years, Mrs. Emma J. Knowles, suit for divorce from Francis W. Knowles, a New York lawyer, which was begun in 1908, is at last before Common Pleas Court No. 4 for final action. The ground for divorce is given as desertion, and a bitter legal battle is being waged as to what constitutes desertion.

Mrs. Knowles was formerly Miss Jarrett, of this city. After her marriage she and her husband lived in New York. In 1901 Mrs. Knowles returned to this city and, according to her complaint, the husband was to send for her when he wanted to return to their New York home. This, it is said, he never did.

After hearing all the testimony the master recommended that the divorce be granted, but counsel for the husband filed exceptions and both sides submitted briefs on the legal points involved. An early decision is expected.—Philadelphia Record, May 25.

Memorial day the freight station at Hatboro will be closed except for perishable freight.

HATBORO HOME HAPPENINGS

LIEUTENANT FISHER POST G. A. R.

Hatboro, Pa., May 23, 1911.

GENERAL ORDER NO. 4.

Comrades:

The approach of another Memorial Day reminds us of our duty to decorate the graves of our departed comrades with earth's choicest flowers and with fitting ceremonies.

In obedience to orders Headquarters on May 30th the Post will meet at its headquarters, York street, Hatboro, and form column with Carmel Presbyterian church, Edge Hill, Boys' Brigade, under arms, headed by the Hatboro band at 8:30 a. m., the column will proceed to the Baptist cemetery and there decorate the graves of deceased comrades. From there column will proceed to Hatboro cemetery, where graves will be decorated. There will be good speakers at each place.

After exercises at cemetery, column will proceed to Baptist church, where the oration of the day will be made by Rev. E. J. Isenberger, of Lansdale. There will be other exercises appropriate to the occasion. After the service Post will march to Wilgus hall for dinner. Invitation is given as usual to all Patriotic orders to lay aside their usual occupations and join in the exercises of the day, and thus help to perpetuate the memory of the brave defenders who made such sacrifices to preserve our nation, and maintain the old flag.

The Post will attend divine service at Hatboro M. E. church on Sunday, May 28th, at 10.30 o'clock. Comrades are requested to meet at headquarters in uniform at ten o'clock.

Pastors of various churches are requested to preach Memorial sermons on Sunday, May 28th and urge the children and parents to procure flowers and help decorate the graves of fallen comrades on May 30th.

Contributions of food and money should be sent to Mrs. George R. Todd, Hatboro, before May 30th. This year the expenses of the Post for flags, music, etc., are unusually heavy and the help of all patriotic residents is requested.

By order of W. W. CORSON, Commander.
W. H. BARTON, Adjutant.

Mrs. Grant Clayton is ill with pneumonia.

Jury Commissioner Triol, of Jenkintown, was in the borough on Tuesday.

Mrs. Rebecca Markley, of Washington, D. C., was in the borough this week.

Mrs. Horace Leidy and son, Horace, spent Sunday in the borough with relatives.

Alpheus Reu and wife, of Germantown, were the guests of John Lindsay and wife on Sunday.

Thomas J. Lane, in charge of the big Meehan nurseries at Dresher, was in the borough last Tuesday.

Miss Jennie Sprogell, who has been ill with typhoid fever, was able to be down stairs on Tuesday for the first time in weeks.

To prepare for the celebration on Memorial day, Lieutenant John H. Fisher held a meeting in the Post room on Monday night.

Mrs. Wilbur, nee Yerkes, formerly of Hatboro, now of Philadelphia, and her little daughter, have this week been visiting George C. Yerkes and family.

J. M. Walmsley was able to drive out on Tuesday, the first time since his recent accident, when the muscles of his leg near the knee were badly wrenched.

The fire company held its monthly meeting in the firerooms on Monday evening. About $10 was cleared from the benefit given by the Wilson-Wayne vaudeville company exhibition on the base ball grounds last week.

The Dager-Robinson Auto Company have added the agencies of the Cadillac and the Overland cars to their line of E. M. F., Flanders and Buick. This week they have in their garage a handsome Overland, foredoor runabout.

The C. E. Social, of the Baptist church, will be entertained by Miss Sophie Nice, at her home near Woodmont, on Monday evening next. All members and friends are invited. Teams will be provided to take you there.

A big business deal was consummated on Tuesday when Warren M. Cornell purchased the real estate, good-will and business of the Hatboro Realty Company. Mr. Cornell has had good success in real estate business in the little over one year that he has had his office open in Hatboro and by acquiring the established business and up-to-date office of the Hatboro Realty Company, should and deserves to make rapid progress along the line of greater success. Mr. Cornell is an extensive advertiser and is constantly showing properties to prospective purchasers.

C. C. Moore has awarded a contract to Henry Specht, of Willow Grove, for an extensive addition to his hotel. A dining hall about 30 by 50 feet will be built to the south of the present dining room, and in the rear an up-to-date kitchen with fine hotel range and appurtenances will adjoin dining room. William H. Raisner's masons have already begun work on the improvement, and the building is to be finished in 60 days. When completed this dining room will be attractively decorated and Mr. Moore will make a bid for the patronage of automobile parties. It is hoped to make Hatboro as popular a stopping place for dinner and refreshments as are William Penn, Three Tuns, Fort Side, etc.

Mrs. Catharine Johnson, went to Jarrettown on Tuesday to spend some time in the home of A. G. McDowell.

Misses Mary and Laura Weid accompanied Miss Viola Marple, in her automobile, to Collegeville last Saturday.

Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Fluck, died last Monday, aged 19 years. He had been ill for a long time with consumption. He was taken sick while at work in Camden, N. J., was brought to his home here and seemed after a time to get better, but soon had a relapse and wasted away. The funeral was held on Thursday, interment at Doylestown.

M. Smith, representing the Independent Milk Dealers Association, was in Hatboro on Monday. He called at the Spirit Office and inserted an advertisement for milk for members of the association. Mr. Smith wants farmers to communicate with him, as his association has taken up the farmers' fight on the milk cooling question.

This will be read with interest by the Hatboro friends of Miss Mary Markley, daughter of Dr. Paul H. Markley, of 515 Cooper street, Camden, N. J., who was recently appointed head of the department of Arts and Crafts in the new Henry C. Kelsey School of Industrial Arts at Trenton. This school which will be one of the first of its kind in this country, was presented to the city of Trenton by Henry C. Kelsey, formerly Secretary of State, and will be formally opened next fall. Miss Markley won her appointment as the result of a competitive examination for the position in which she stood first in a class of over two hundred contestants.

When Mrs. Lydia Barnsley died she left $500 to have an oil portrait painted of her deceased husband, Joseph Barnsley. This portrait she presented to the Barnsley memorial library at Newtown. The money for the erection of the library was left by Joseph Barnsley, to become available at the death of his widow. When this building is completed the portrait, which arrived in Newtown a day or two ago will be placed therein. The picture was painted by Stephen J. Ferris, of Philadelphia, and has been approved by the committee in charge. Joseph Barnsley lived at Hartsville and was a director of the Hatboro National Bank. He is remembered by our older residents. His widow resided in the borough many years.

KILLED ON CUT-OFF RAILROAD.

Coroner Howard P. White was called to near Rocksville, last Sunday morning to view the body of a young man found on the track of the Pennsylvania Railroad Cut-off at that place, about 3 o'clock by the crew of a freight train. It is supposed that the man fell off a west bound freight train. His head was so badly mashed that his features [illegible] not be distinguished. AILMENT CLOSES SCHOOL

Mt. Airy Institution Will be Fumigated as Result of Skin Affection.

The Andrew G. Curtin School, at Musgrove and Horter streets, Mt. Airy, was closed Friday by order of Dr. A. A. Cairns, chief medical inspector of the Bureau of Health. This action was taken after it had been discovered that several of the pupils of the school had been undergoing a process of skin peeling known as "desquamating." These pupils were suffering with a slight form of scarlet fever, and their parents had not considered their cases were sufficiently virulent to call in a physician or keep them from school.

However, a large number of new cases of scarlet fever have been reported to the Bureau of Health and it was deemed best to close the school and await developments. In the meantime the school will be fumigated and disinfected and will be reopened on May 20.

Nothing makes a man quite so mad as for another man to try to flirt with his wife in his presence.

THERE'S A STRONG CONTRAST
Between the Tailor-made garment and the picked-off-the counter kind. The contrast is not only in the fit—it is in everything—the Fabric, the Lining, the Cut, Style, finishing—everything that counts in a suit of clothes or an Overcoat. Now which is it your ambition to be, well dressed or arrayed in a slovenly manner? If the former come to US.

Mrs. Alice Maddock and daughter, of Crestmont, visited friends here on Saturday.

Mrs. Josiah Russell and son were the guests of Mrs. Mark Branin on Saturday.

H. C. LaRue and family have returned home after spending some time at Atlantic City.

T. J. Hunley is doing the cement work for the LaRue building operation on Walnut street.

Mrs. Kate Lenhart and son, J. Garfield, visited relatives in Trenton, New Jersey, on Sunday.

Anna B. Krabehl and Mary D. Kirk visited Mrs. Hannah E. Clayton, at Glenside, on Sunday.

John Hohlefelder is doing the mason and brick work for the new addition to the Trust Company.

Daniel Hartney, of Langhorne; Arthur Welsh, of McKinley; Thomas Fenton, of Glenside, visited here recently.

The Church of Immaculate Conception has been holding evangelistic services during the week. The attendance was large.

The Baptist Sunday school will hereafter have their Sunday school in the morning at ten o'clock, and preaching at eleven. Dr. Cooper's subject on Sunday morning was, "Self Deception," and in the evening, "The Life and Character of John Bunyan."

Hester, widow of the late Joseph Felton, died on Saturday morning, of heart trouble at the home of her son, Jacob Felton, on West avenue in her 82nd year. The funeral was held on Tuesday, interment at Hillside cemetery. She leaves one son, Jacob Felton, of Jenkintown. She was born and raised near Olney, Philadelphia, had lived in our town for over fifty years, and was a member of the M. E. church.

McKINLEY

Ed. Lyman had the misfortune to severely sprain his foot on Monday last, and is obliged to use a cane.

The Saturday evening dances at the Hammerstein Mill are to be discontinued and moving picture shows will be given in their place.

The rumor is revived that six houses are to be built in Elkins Park, East Cadwalader estate this summer. Sixteen are to be built on the Haines development.

On Saturday evening last a very entertaining moving picture show was held in the schoolhouse, operated by Mr. Sanderson. Proceeds for the benefit of the fire company.

The P. J. S. met at the home of Ellwood Gamwell on Thursday evening, the 18th. The regular routine business being attended to, refreshments were served. After which amusements were indulged in to a late hour.

What about the improvements asked for some months ago to the schoolhouse? Vacation is not so far away, and another year may require that our school should be prepared for the inevitable. What are your school facilities is the first question by intending residents, also the keynote to our advancement.

WARRINGTON

Harry Wiley, wife and children, on Sunday visited John Yewet at Buckingham.

Miss Florence March, of Neshaminy, was the guest of William Michener and family on Sunday.

Miss Etta Long, who has been spending some time with relatives in Philadelphia, returned on Tuesday.

The Warrington Literary Society met on Saturday evening at the home of Herbert McKinstry. Charles R. MacNair gave a recitation entitled, "People Will Talk;" Miss Thompson and Mrs. H. R. McKinstry each gave readings. Mrs. Norman Cornell had charge of several referred questions answered by Helen Carrell, Ethel and Aliene Perry, Rebecca D. Thompson, Pearl Carrell, Mrs. I. L. MacNair, Samuel Clymer, Irvin L. MacNair, Herbert McKinstry. Charles Hamilton read an essay on the life of Oliver Wendell Holmes, the author of the evening. A James Whitcomb Riley meeting will be held in June at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Perry.

A gentleman is a man who sighs effectively while he loves a woman and lies effectively when he ceases to love her.

The schools of Solebury township will hold their commencement exercises in the Christian church, at Carversville, on Saturday evening, May 27th, at 7.45 o'clock. The high school pupils who will receive their diplomas are Misses Elsie Fries, Gladys Shea, Helen Walton, Elizabeth Hellyer, Alma Cals and Messrs. William Burd and Edward Washington.

Most failures can be traced to the belief that other people are not quite as smart as we are.

FARMER HANGED HIMSELF.

Amos Trego, of Pineville, Committed Suicide as His Father Had Done.

Within a few feet of the spot where his father hanged himself some years ago, Amos Trego, aged 75 years, of Pineville, committed suicide, Thursday afternoon of last week, by hanging in the shed in the rear of Pineville Hall, which adjoins his residence. His father, John K. Trego, hanged himself in the wagon house of the present Trego home. Another strange coincidence is that Hell Quinn and Ralph Slack, who cut down the father, discovered and cut down the son.

Mr. Trego had lived near Pineville nearly all of his life and until ten years ago, when he retired he followed farming. For the past six months, since suffering a stroke Mr. Trego has been in very poor health and to some extent mentally unbalanced. Within a month he has talked of committing suicide and on one occasion told a friend that he was only kept from doing it by the fear of consequences after death.

About 3.30 Thursday afternoon Mrs. Trego missed her husband and became alarmed. She went to Molloy's store to inquire about him and Messrs. Quinn and Slack started out to assist her in finding him, with the result mentioned. The old man had stood on a box, thrown the rope over a rafter and jumped off. He had been dead about an hour when found.

Mr. Trego is survived by his widow, one son, Harry R. Trego, of Pineville, and a daughter, Mrs. Jonathan Warner, of Philadelphia.

Eugene Stapler, of Lower Makefield, has installed an electric plant on his farm, the electricity being generated from a stream of water running through the premises.

RHEUMATISM
and its TORTURES banished
Mr. C. Hoffman, 2907 E. York street, Philadelphia, Pa., writes: "I wish to let you know what MATUSOW'S NULFEY (tablets) has done for me. I have had rheumatism for the last ten years. I have had pains in the arms, shoulders and ankles, and severe pains in the small of the back, across the kidneys. At times I had such severe pains in the hip that I could not move. I was also troubled with constipation from childhood. I used one bottle of MATUSOW'S NULFEY (tablets) and feel like a new man. I have no more pain and my bowels move regularly; and my work, that of a motorman, is again a pleasure to me instead of a burden. I intend to continue the use of NULFEY (tablets) for a while. I give you this testimonial with pleasure and gratitude, and hope that others who suffer as I did will not hesitate to give this wonderful medicine a trial."
MATUSOW'S NULFEY (tablets) is sold and recommended by Walter Rothwell, the well-known druggist of Hatboro, Pa., and by all up-to-date druggists; also for sale (or by mail) at the Nulfey Laboratory, 298 Columbia avenue, Philadelphia.

THIEF ENTERED STORE.

Frank Schimpf was much astonished on Sunday morning when he entered his store, to find that some time during the night a pane of glass had been removed from a second story window, and the store had been entered. The thief had stood upon the ice chest on the back shed. As there was no money in the cash register, the intruder did not take much of the bulky groceries. The man was an expert in his line as the glass was not broken but carefully cut out and laid to one side.

RUNAWAY HORSE KILLED.

William Penrose had hard luck the other day, when a horse that he had sent to Kentner's blacksmith shop, on Moreland road, ran off down Moreland road to the Germantown pike, where it jumped over the wire fence, which separates the pike from Willow Grove Park, and fell upon the trolley tracks, of the Hatboro and Doylestown lines. The animal burst a blood vessel and died before it could be removed from where it fell. It was a valuable horse and one that had done Mr. Penrose a great deal of service.

Repairs have been made to the kitchen at Parkside Inn and it is ready for the season.

Mrs. Harry Maddock entertained lady friends of Philadelphia, on Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Alice Maddock has returned home after spending a few weeks with friends at Feasterville and Oakford.

Rumford E. Murphy, real estate broker, report of having sold for John R. Olding, his 10-room modern dwelling, stable and seven building lots, situated at Crestmont, to Joseph Kerns, of Philadelphia. Mr. Olding purchased this property twelve years ago, and during this time has added many extensive improvements. Mr. Kerns, having sold his business, which he has conducted the past 27 years, and will now make his permanent home at Crestmont. Possession will be given in thirty days. This property was listed with this firm for sale two weeks ago.

EUREKA

Mrs. Kate S. Weisel entertained relatives on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Haldeman entertained friends from Philadelphia on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Detweiler spent Sunday at Skippackville, visiting Mrs. Detweiler's sister and family.

The Chalfont P. O. S. of A. will attend the evening service at Pleasantville Reformed church, in a body, on Sunday, May 28th.

Misses Mae Koehler, Maria Hoover, and Vivian Weidner spent last Saturday and Sunday with their friend, Miss Blanche White, at West Chester Normal School.

Several people from this vicinity attended the cantata, "Ruth The Moabitess," given by the New Britain Literary Society, in the New Britain Baptist church, on Thursday evening.

WYNDMOOR

Captain and Mrs. Weaver entertained friends from Philadelphia, on Sunday.

John Sandiford, of Willow Grove avenue, lost a fine colt last week with lockjaw.

Misses Eva and Cecelia Butcher, of Germantown, were Sunday guests of Mrs. William Livezey.

Relatives from Frankford spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Schaefer, of Flourtown avenue.

Next Sunday evening the Rev. C. Gauger will preach on the theme "Heaven" in the Grace Lutheran church.

William Robinson, of Flourtown avenue, was taken to the Chestnut Hill Hospital on Sunday suffering with pneumonia.

A very interesting illustrated lecture was delivered by Mr. Hering, of Philadelphia, on Tuesday evening in the Grace church, on the subject, "The Problem of the Modern City." Mr. Hering, the lecturer has made a special study of this problem for a number of years and at present, is devoting his time and energy to help the "Man at the Bottom." The illustrations showed how he lived and what he does.

PASTOR ANDERSON SURPRISED.

Our town and vicinity is noted for its many social events and surprise parties and serenades are the usual thing but nothing in that line has ever surpassed or equaled the surprise party tendered to Rev. A. W. Anderson on his birthday, Monday evening, May 22nd. Not only was his entire congregation present, but almost the entire village attended to show their respect and love. Only a resident of the town about a year, he has won the hearts of every man, woman and child with his kind, man to man interest he takes in every thing that interests the town. Those who do not attend church have been made to feel that they have a friend in this broad minded, outspoken minister of the gospel. The party met at the home of Guy R. Leedom at 8 o'clock and went to the parsonage in a body. Mr. Anderson was taken completely by surprise, being at work at his desk in his shirt sleeves. George Shelmire, on behalf of the congregation, presented him with a handsome oak revolving desk chair. Music was provided by the mandolin club and the Forget-me-not Band of Johnsville. The latter feature was the hit of the evening and was composed of five fair damsels of Johnsville, who rendered popular airs on home made instruments, which consisted of the arm of a rocking chair, a clothes rack, a broom, dish-pan and other house furnishings. Their leader had all the graces of Sousa, except the white gloves. H. Wolf and H. Parker sang popular songs. Mr. Anderson thanked all present for their kindness and while taken off his guard, assured every one in a few words how grateful he was for this public display of their appreciation. Refreshments were served, after which the guests left for their homes, wishing their pastor and friend many more anniversaries of his natal day. It was through the hard work and perseverance of William Becker and George Shelmire that big success of the event was due.

G. R. Leedom has returned from a trip to New York and Connecticut.

Douglas Durand has been visiting at the home of his uncle, Elder Silas Durand.

John Montanye was thrown from his horse, Sunday morning, sustaining a broken leg.

William Heaton and family, of Washington, are visiting at the home of Edward Heaton.

Elder P. W. Sawin, of Kentucky, is expected to preach at the Southampton Baptist church on Sunday morning, May 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Tomlinson, Grace Tomlinson and Harry Tomlinson, Jr., spent Sunday at the home of Amos L. Knight, of Lawndale.

The fife and drum corps made their first public appearance on Friday evening, May 19th, and after a march around the town were invited to refreshments by W. H. Stout.

A parade of the fire company led by the fife and drum corps will be held throughout the town on Decoration day morning at 9 a. m. After the parade a drill will be given and a trial will be made of using two lines of hose from each engine.

Owing to the excessive heat the contemplated vaudeville show for the benefit of the baseball club to have been given on May 27th, has been abandoned, as it was impossible to induce the members of the Dramatic club to assist at this time of the year. Later on a lawn carnival, may be arranged, if the funds do not hold out.

The circus which came to town on Monday has induced a circus fever among the younger members of the fire company and one of the big features of open air carnival to be held during July for the benefit of the fire company, will be a circus, composed of home talent, which will include acrobatic feats, trained animals, clowns and races. Mr. Miller, of the White hotel, will be drill master.

The ladies of Southampton held their bakery and candy bazaar last Saturday, which was one of the biggest successes of the season and with money contributions, a sum of $66 was realized, and turned over to the treasury of the fire company. As a mark of appreciation for this noble work, it is intended that a ladies' auxiliary be enrolled by the fire company. With the ladies coming out and helping so splendidly, the future of the fire company is assured.

The Southampton baseball club added another overwhelming victory to their credit in defeating the baseball team from the St. Michael's Institute, on Saturday, May 20th by a score of 17 to 2. Mr. Gill again pitched with his usual speed and struck out the first five men that came to the bat. It was his work, together with the catching of H. Parker, that killed any chance the visiting team might have had. The home players hit when and where they pleased. Mr. Landis, of Trevose, and C. Smith held positions on the infield of the home team and with Blythe and R. Clayton, presented a stone wall through which nothing could pass. The visiting team wanted to locate a constable and put a stop to the robberies performed by A. Cornell and William Herman in the outfield. Albert Parker again officiated as umpire and his decisions were not disputed by either side and the fans are loud in their appreciation of his ability and fairness to both sides, which is one of the most important features of a baseball game. The Wenona A. C. will be the attraction on Saturday, May 27th, and hard battle is assured, as they have won four games so far this season by big scores. H. Gill and H. Parker will again lead the home team. On Decoration day at 3 p. m. the Temple Travelers will oppose the home team. This team has won six straight games so far this season. Another pitcher will lead the home team on this day.

Mrs. Carr Dudbridge, Mrs. A. C. Fetter and Mrs. John Ramsey spent last Saturday in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Fetter and family delightfully entertained the following guests to dinner on Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. John Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson and daughter, Rachel, Mr. and Mrs. Carr Dudbridge, Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey Dudbridge and daughter, Elsie, Mr. and Mrs. Christian Fetter.

A. C. Fetter has purchased a Ford automobile.

A. C. Fetter has been cutting some very fine asparagus.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ramsey spent Saturday night and Sunday with their parents, A. C. Fetter and family.

TREVOSE

Ninety mechanics are working upon the amusement buildings at Neshaminy Falls to get everything in readiness for the formal opening on Memorial day. The promoters declare that at least five thousand excursionists will throng Poplar Park on that date.

Much to the disgust of those who had assembled to witness the ball game on the 21st, the "Tioga Professionals" failed to put in an appearance.

Before entering the ministry our present pastor, Rev. John W. Bradley, was a professor in a prominent high school at a salary of twenty-five hundred dollars per annum. His church duties have never yielded more than seven hundred dollars per year, from which it might appear that here is a man who may "be judged by his works." Arrangements are now suggested by Samuel Carver, whereby, with the sanction of the Ladies' Aid society of which Mrs. Ambrose M. Moyer is president, the reverend gentleman and his accomplished wife, may be allowed to occupy what is known as "the parsonage cottage" at Trevose, situated in the heart of Simpson's Grove.

Masters Charles and Harvey Roeschen are driving around in a small wagon which is hauled by two of the cutest goats imaginable. Jenks Roberts, whose skill as a harnessmaker has hitherto not been suspected by many of our fellow townsmen, has made for these goats a perfectly fitting double harness. Truly hath the poet sung, with slight interpolation: "Backward, turn backward, Oh Time in thy flight and make me a child again, just for to-night."

Referring again to the insane hospital to be constructed near Trevose at a cost of five million dollars; it should be observed, before entering upon some of the particulars in the case of Martin Bloomer, head gardener of Lord Hope, near Dublin, that many insane inmates of asylums are apparently sane to the casual observer. Conversely, and to use very mild language, there are those not in asylums who, in instances of ungovernable and furious temper, become dangerous to themselves and to others. Note, for instance, newspaper accounts of persons who are in weak physical condition and how, under temporary aberration, there is a summoning of strength of abnormal degree, before which the object sought is overwhelmed with disaster. This latent force is really the "conservation of energy," as fully described by Herbert Spencer, the world's "greatest thinker." It is a tremendous force, especially when set free in a whirlwind of passion and to its operation many crimes are attributable. With the sane it may occur only once in a matured lifetime—at the climax of some real or fancied grievance, or it may recur among personages of morbid mentalities who brood secretly and finally give way to fatal ebullition. Experienced persons, however, may deal in comparative safety with all concerned in the above descriptions, even as one may awe, by veritable strength of will power, certain animals whose bark is worse than their bite. And, for example, the process is the same as the keeper of the lioness in her cage, held in check by the steady gleams of her master's eyes. The pith of this prefatory explanation would be found serviceable were one of these patients to escape from the asylum boundary and wander afar, as sometimes occurs in all retreats for the insane. To show fear by running, or in the utterance of frightened exclamations, would be unwise, bearing in mind that the really dangerous lunatics are always locked securely within the four walls of padded apartments from which escape is impossible. In personal appearance Martin Bloomer resembled William M. Evarts, late Secretary of State at Washington, and also the famous Sherlock Holmes, the celebrated character in the tales of Sir A. Conan Doyle. And in his peculiar field Bloomer was also a distinguished man, of whom you shall be fully informed in later issues of the Spirit.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucuous surfaces.

We will give one hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

OF INTEREST TO FARMERS.

TIMELY TOPICS OF PLANTS AND PESTS DISCUSSED WEEKLY

By H. A. Surface, State Zoologist of Pa.

WHY GROW WORMY APPLES?

There is no need nor excuse for the fruit growers of Pennsylvania any longer to produce fruits of inferior or defective quality. The 240 Demonstration Orchards and 1,200 Model Supervision Orchards, which have been established by Doctor Surface in the Division of Zoology, of the Department of Agriculture of Pennsylvania, are so scattered over the State as to be available to all our citizens.

In all these orchards spraying has been done for the suppression of scale insects. The new campaign is against that arch enemy of the pome fruits (the apple, pear and quince), known as the Codling moth, which makes the worm holes in such fruits.

Three years ago it was proven clearly in the Demonstration Orchards of the various counties of this State, as at the Huntingdon Reformatory orchard, and the Berks County Almshouse orchard, that apples can be grown here which are ninety-eight per cent. free from blemish or injury by insects or plant diseases.

Many visitors in the Demonstration Orchards saw this at the fall meetings for the study of results. Now the campaign is to be extended as soon as the apple blossoms fall, and every person willing to go but a few miles will have an opportunity to see just now this is done.

The poison that will be used for the suppression of the Codling moth, the Curculio, the Canker worm, and other chewing insects, is the arsenate of lead, using two pounds in each fifty gallons of liquid. With this, a fungicide to be used for the prevention of plant diseases,—such as the rots, blights, smuts, rusts, and mildews,—will be the dilute lime-sulfur solution, made the same as for the San Jose scale, by diluting it with cold water forty times for the pome fruits (or apple, pear and quince), and one to one hundred, or one gallon in one hundred of water, for the stone fruits.

The time for spraying is just after the blossoms fall, and again in one or two weeks. The most important point of these demonstrations is that for the first time the more convenient, cheaper and more satisfactory dilute lime-sulfur solution will be used, instead of the Bordeaux mixture. By this there will be less liability of russetting or burning the fruit, and a considerable saving of time and expense.

Spraying for pest control has reached a very definite and practical basis when it can be announced to our citizens, as now, for the first time, that only two preparations, viz., the strong lime-sulfur solution and arsenate of lead, constitute practically all that they need to keep in store for the suppression of nearly all the pests of trees.

GET RID OF FLIES AND MOSQUITOES.

A correspondent recently wrote to Prof. H. A. Surface, State Zoologist, as follows:

"Will you kindly send me information regarding the prevention of flies and mosquitoes. I have a stable in the rear of my property, back of which there is a manure pile. I think the flies breed here, and have been told that if I mix lime with it the flies will be killed.

The mosquitoes breed, I think, in several ponds that are near the house. Any information furnished by you will be greatly appreciated."

The Professor's reply was as follows:

"The habits of flies and mosquitoes are quite different and I must discuss each separately.

"Of course, you know there are many different species of flies, and the breeding habits of each differ considerably. However, I presume you refer to the one commonly known as the House fly or Typhoid fly. This pest passes the winter generally as a mature or adult insect in some place of concealment or protection, or even as a pupa or chrysalis in or near the place where it fed as a larva.

"In the early part of the summer it commences to lay its eggs, chiefly in manure, either in stables themselves, or around the manure piles. Any kind of filth or decaying organic matter may serve as a place for the laying of the eggs, and also for the development of the young. Within a few days after laying they hatch, and the young larva or maggots come forth to live upon the organic matter they can find. They develop into white worms, which in a short time transform into brown pupae or chrysalids, and in a few days these split open and the winged fly comes forth.

"The best means of suppressing the fly nuisance is to clean up the breeding places absolutely. This demands unusual care. As an aid to this, nothing is better than the lime-sulfur solution, made by boiling lime and sulfur together, and diluting it just the same as is directed in our bulletins and circulars from time to time for spraying for the San Jose scale. In other words, boil one pound of lime with two pounds of sulfur in one gallon of water for one hour. This is a strong solution that can be kept. It can also be purchased as a commercial lime-sulfur solution, sold by most seedsmen and many hardware dealers. Dilute one gallon of this with seven or eight gallons of water, and sprinkle it or spray it abundantly around the premises. It is not only a contact insecticide, but it is also a good germicide. It is the best treatment that can be given for the interior of poultry houses, cow stables, horse stables, pig pens, etc. However, muddy or soft ground should not be soaked with it, and then oblige the animals to wade throught it to any great extent, as it will gradually injure their feet if they must stand or walk in it for any great length of time.

"If the stable is cleaned out thoroughly and swept once each week, it will be sufficient to provide against the breeding of the House fly or Typhoid fly at that particular place. It is very advisable to put some boiled lime-sulfur solution over the floor of the stable, whether this be of boards, concrete or earth, doing this after cleaning it.

"It will take an immense quantity of lime to mix with manure to kill the flies. I doubt if this will be a practical means of pest suppression. Chloride of lime would be more efficient, both as an insecticide and germicide, but it would also be more expensive.

"Mosquitoes breed in water, as you suggest. It is remarkable what a small quantity of water may be sufficient to cause enough of these pests to be very annoying to several families. Sometimes an old tin can or a water bucket or a post hole left standing with water in it, will be sufficient to give the breeding place to hundreds or thousands of these pests. A thin film of oil on top of the water will immediately destroy them.

"One should look around the premises and see if there are any old vessels containing water, and if so, either empty them, or put a few spoonfuls of oil on them. Drains, sinks and cisterns should be kept covered with netting, and thus be mosquito-proof. Oil on water would not injure it, although stock would not come to it to drink water while the oil was on it. If one should, for example, have a watering tub in which mosquitoes are breeding, it is best to pour in a few spoonfuls of oil and let this spread, and kill the pests, which it will do within much less than one hour. Then with some vessel like a bucket he can skim off the oil and throw it away.

"Of course, in addition to the efforts of cleaning up stables, poultry houses and pig pens, it is advisable to keep the house screened, so as to keep out the flies, which in spite of the greatest vigilance will find places for breeding. We can scarcely hope to exterminate the House fly, but if we reduce its numbers and suppress it, we will be doing a good thing for ourselves and neighbors."

THE TUSSOCK MOTH.

To a correspondent, who asked for definite directions for destroying the Tussock moth, which badly infested his trees last year, Professor H. A. Surface, State Zoologist of Pennsylvania, said:

"The Tussock moth, which is so injurious to shade trees, especially along streets, can be held in check by spraying with arsenate of lead, using about three pounds in fifty gallons of water, which is practically in the proportion of one ounce in each gallon.

"Spray thoroughly, with any kind of an apparatus that will throw the liquid over the leaves as a spray, but be sure and do this while the moths or larvae are yet young.

"At the present time the Tussock moth is in the egg stage, in the white egg masses seen on the trunks or branches of trees. The larvae crawled to such spot, and there shed its hairs, and spun its loose cocoon, making this of a few silken threads combined with spiny hairs.

"Later the female moth came from the cocoon as a wingless creature, the males flying and mating. The eggs were then deposited upon the old cocoons, and covered with a kind of white froth, which hardened over them, and protected them, as we now find them. Along in May the little larvae or worms will come from these eggs, and commence feeding on the foliage.

"The best thing to do is to gather these egg masses by hand now. Where this cannot be done, it is possible to reach them with a sponge on the end of a pole, dipping the sponge into kerosene, and being sure that each of the egg masses is well touched with the oil. In order to color it so that you can see which have been treated as you go around the trees, it is a good plan to use lamp black in the kerosene oil.

"If for any reason all of the egg masses are not removed or treated, and the young should commence to feed on the foliage, it is important to spray them with an arsenical poison, just as soon as possible, because the younger they are the easier they are to kill, and also the less damage they do to the trees. If some of this material blows on the grass or lawn or upon the sidewalk, it will do no harm."

A Lansdale business man recently placed a cat in a bag and the bag and cat in a wagon, which he drove northward on a business trip to the vicinity of Sellersville and Perkasie. Pussy was left out near Sellersville to shift all alone. Time went on for two weeks, and behold the cat came back to its home in Lansdale, looking none the worse for its travels.

Don't be afraid to change your mind.

The farmer and his wife were about to sit down to a cold supper when they saw some old friends driving towards the house.

The good wife was equal to the occasion—thanks to her New Perfection Oil Cook-stove.

She had it lit in a moment, and her guests hardly were seated on the porch before a hearty hot meal was ready for the table—sausages and eggs and long rashers of streaky bacon, and rolls just crisped in the oven and fresh coffee—and the hostess herself as cool and neat as if she had not been near the kitchen.

She never could have managed it with an old-fashioned range. The New Perfection is the quickest, most convenient and best cooker on the market.

New Perfection WICK BLUE FLAME Oil Cook-stove

Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners, with long, turquoise blue enameled chimneys. Handsomely finished throughout. The 2- and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without a cabinet top, which is fitted with drop shelves, towel racks, etc.

After the potatoes are up set the cultivator deep and close to the plant.

Let the soil be rich for your asparagus bed for its growth will always reveal the way it has been fed.

Keep the fence around the orchard as free from weeds, grass and trash as you would your choicest garden plants. Weeds along the fence are fine harbors for insects.

Plaster, when properly applied, is beneficial to all leguminous crops, especially red, white, crimson and alsike clovers; disc peas, beans and potatoes.

The Indian Runner ducklings are usually very active and hardy, and will quickly roam far and wide in search of insect life, which if plentiful will form a large part of their food.

Bread crumbs are the best food for the young turkeys until they are three weeks old, varied with an occasional hard boiled egg. Later, cottage cheese may be added to the bill of fare. As soon as large enough to eat they will thrive on wheat, and ere long the grasshoppers will be so plentiful that it is only necessary to feed them at night, this being an inducement to them to return home to roost.

No. 49.

AN ORDINANCE

Requiring the construction of a curb and sidewalk or pavement on the Northeasterly side of Oakdale Avenue from the Northwesterly side of the Germantown and Willow Grove Turnpike to the Southeasterly side of Roberts Avenue, in the Village of Glenside.

Be it ordained by the Township Commissioners of Abington Township, Montgomery county, Pennsylvania, in regular session assembled:

Section 1. That the several and respective owners of property fronting on the Northeasterly side of Oakdale avenue between the Northwesterly side of the Germantown and Willow Grove Turnpike and the Southeasterly side of Roberts Avenue, in the village of Glenside, said Township, are hereby required and directed to curb and pave the sidewalk along side of said Avenue for the distance of their respective frontage thereon, said curb to be of cement of six (6) inches in thickness or of granite four (4) inches in thickness, such pavement or sidewalk to be four (4) feet in width and to be constructed of cement or of a substantial flag stone; and said owners are further required and directed to do all necessary grading of said sidewalk before paving the same; all to be done in a good workmanlike manner and to the approval of the Committee of Highways of said Township;

Section 2. Notice is hereby given to the said property owners to construct such curb and sidewalk, and to do such necessary grading within (60) sixty days from the date hereof. If any owner shall fail to comply herewith, the Township Engineer shall construct, or have the same constructed, and the owner will be charged with the cost thereof, together with the penalty authorized by law, and the Board of Commissioners shall file a lien for the amount of the same against the property of the owner or owners failing to comply herewith.

Enacted into an ordinance this 18th day of May, 1911.
